“ My condolences to the Johnny Myles Family. It is during times of loss that we realize what’s important in life. And, right at the top of the list, just below Jesus, is Family. May it comfort you to know that you have each other and the memories of the past to reflect on in your quiet moments as well as friends and acquaintances who loved your father and you. I remember the many times I hung out at your home on North 26th playing and challenging each other over the years. Meeting your dad for the first time was scary until I found out “his bark was worse than his bite” as they say. He will be missed; but the memories live on. Thank you for treating me like family and know that I am just a phone call away - Tiny Mae knows exactly how to reach me. Love y’all. -Audrey Smith

“ Well Dad you are one again with Momma, I miss you both so much, words can't explain the empty feeling left inside of me right now. I will never cry enough tears to make the pain go away. I was raised to be a strong women and now I have to be, just knowing that you are with Mom gives me some comfort, and I know I have a few angels watching over me. I love you Dad and kiss Mom for me.
