“ I remember when he was dating our cousin Patty Hunter (his future wife) after he had just joined the military. He hitchhiked at night from Trotter (our hometown) to Lamberton (his home town). I believe that he had his uniform on. He loved boiled eggs. My mother boiled up a dozen of eggs for him to munch on while trying to "thumb" a ride. Shared by: Allen Fant

“ Dad, thank you for being my dad. You were that constant in my life when I felt I had know one. You were that dad who would sit in the kitchen on Saturday morning and press our hair. You were that dad who helped teach us how to cook, how to darn my socks, how to fish and how to be strong. Being strong is even more important now while to make this new journey on your own. You will forever be in my heart. I will see you again some day. Rest In Peace. I love you Dad. Your loving daughter Sheila.

“ To my brother John:
From humble beginnings this child of "The King", marched through life joyously, bearing witness to HIS offerings.
A legacy of love living now into the sands of time, marching on to glory, to becoming wholly divine.
Rest in Peace, your sister Maggie and family.

“ To the Williams Family. My heart is so broken hearing that my dear friend has a new address. Our friendship started almost 50 years ago. He was by far the best Allstate Agent one could ever have the pleasure of knowing. He always greeted you with a smile, he was always full of great conversation & wisdom and I can never remember him upset. The world will be missing another wonderful man. Stay strong and continue to walk on faith.
