When have I not known this great man. He watched over all the children in the neighborhood and never said much. But when Mr. Black spoke, we all stopped and paid attention. He is the example of what it is to be "proud of being black". I will never forget him, never. My sympathies to my childhood friends Joseph and Janice. Love always...Jeri

“ To Janice,Lil Joe,Bobbie and other members of Mr.Joseph Black family we share in this loss also...Our family lived in the neighborhood and watched as Mr. Black and Momma(Mrs. Elsie Black) showed us what a dynamite business they had together(hand in hand.).She took care of the personal business and he handled the floral arrangements..Awesome!!We were kind of young but as we grew the relationship between them Never changed....As time went on Momma needed a little bit of help and Big Joe was right there (along with Janice,Lil Joe and now some of the grands) Words come plentiful as I speak of him but I cannot leave her out...Together they were an example of the kind of people we need more of; always smiling, warm. willing to lend a hand..Mr. Black you have indeed earned your place in GODS KINGDOM. It is now time to rest...I know MOMMA is waiting for you...Sleep on Mr.Joseph Black Sr. Our deepest condolences
