“ Every time I look at my friends baby that was born 6 months ago, I think of you. You came with me to meet the new baby girl and now she is 6 months old. I wish I could go back 6 months from now and give you a kiss and tell you that I need you. I need and want you here with me. 😭 I don't want to celebrate my 21st birthday without you. I carry you in my heart and thoughts every day. I love and miss you Joe

“ I was very shocked and saddened to hear of the death of JR. He was a charming and fun loving young man. He had a way of making people laugh even when they didn't want to. From the day he walked into my classroom I knew he was an unique person. He wasn't the most serious student but he enjoyed school. He was always a respectable young man, I enjoyed teaching at North School. .i cherished the memories of his smile and fun outlook on life. Gone but will be forever remembered by many and remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Prayers to the family of JR.. Rest in Heaven with your Heaven Father.

“ My dear childhood friend JR. It's unbelievable that you were just visiting my mom 4 days before you departed this earth. She talked, fed you dinner and prayed with you and now your gone. Thank you for coming by not knowing it would be your last bit. Rest in Heaven and we love you.

JR me and you go way back since we were kids and you stayed across the street from me when we stayed on Wilkins St since elementary school and we were close like brothers and it hurts my heart to see you not here anymore and we had plans together with the music you created and the music I created we had a chance to turn our dreams of making it in the music industry into a reality.
