Josephine (Larrymore) Pettiford was born February 17, 1913 to the union of Joseph and Annie (Moses) Larrymore in Calhoun County, St. Matthews, South Carolina. Early in life she married Henry Howell, who predeceased her. To that union three children were born, with Cristabell (Howell) Woodson being her only surviving daughter. She came to Saginaw, MI in 1941 to make a better life for herself and her daughter. Later she met and married William Clark Pettiford, who predeceased her in 1969. Josie owned and operated her own adult foster care facility for over 40 years, retiring in 1990. She received Jesus Christ as her personal Savior very early in life and found strength in prayer for everyone. She took pride as a prayer soldier and "Mother" of her church family, Victorious Believers Ministries C.O.G.I.C., under the guidance of Bishop Marvin C. Pryor. She enjoyed being active in church affairs and enjoyed taking charge of her grands, great-grands and great-great-grands.
