“ It's so hard to say good-bye to someone you love and respect. But our father in heaven loved her more. He knew she was tired and fought a long fight so he called her home to rest. Sister I am going to miss you so much. Thank you for being the aunt I need. I will always. Remember our talks late night when you would come home when I was a kid sneaking your clothes to where to school. And when I had grown up getting off work picking up a pot of crab-legs coming down to your house in Flint and us sitting up all night talking and eating them. You never knew that when you introduced them to me i really didn't care for them. I only ate them because you liked then now I can't get enough of them. As I write this it's Father's day so tell my dad uncle mike brother and uncle bunkie I said happy fathers day. Will always remember and love you guys. Good-bye
