“ To the Williams Family,

I was sorry to hear of the passing of your dear brother Julian, I know your pain, because I lost my only brother a few year ago, and then my son the very next year.

I do know that God is able to bring you through this storm. God can do any thing but fail.

Weeping may endure for a night , but joy will come in the morning. To Billy and the rest of the Williams Family you are in my prayers.

There is no sorrow that heaven can not heal

“ My condolences to the Williams family. In your spare time, please read Luke 7:12-16 and notice how Jesus was moved with pity, so that he resurrected someone. Yes Jesus with the help of his father, will do this again on a grander scale, in the near future. So soon you may see your loved one again, doing what she loved and you enjoying her again. Please find some comfort from this, you and your loved one, in your time of need.

“ Dear Williams Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

Williams Family,

I pray God's peace upon you at this your hour of need. May you turn to Him now, as only the Lord can comfort when a aching heart is too much too bear. God is a burden bearer, a load lifter, a ear to listen and comforter in times of trouble. Jesus tells us I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there you may be also. (John14:2,3). The last time I spoke with Jun he told me he was ready to be with our Lord! On September 24, 2013 Jesus came and showed Jun the way home!! Jun journey in this life is over but loving memories can remain to comfort us. I will miss my cousin, with much love.
