Mrs. Katherine Young departed this life on Monday morning, December 31, 2012 in her home among loving family members at the age of 85 years.

God has called home another one of his children: a loving mother, devoted grandmother, affectionate great-grandmother and friend.

She was employed and retired from St Mary's Hospital after eighteen years of dedicated service. Her interests included family, gardening, sewing, crocheting, knitting and reading. She devoted much of her time and energy as a supportive wife, mother and grandmother to family members.

Katherine enjoyed life, traveling with her family and cooking soul food dinners for all of her children children's children. She also enjoyed all gatherings and activities involving family quality time with her precious children and their children.

Katherine leaves to cherish her memories three devoted sons, Aaron Young, Joseph Young Jr., both of Saginaw, and Jimmie Young of Tennessee; four loving daughters, Patricia (Gerald) Kariem, Estelle Young, Abbey Young and Regina Young, all of Saginaw; twenty-six beloved grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren; a special god-daughter, Inez Williams; special family members, Altermease Walton, Ethelyn Riddick, H.
