“ I need to write this even though I just found out 10 years later that you are gone. Has been on my mind ever since. Your sister recognized me in the Covenant elevator and let me know of your death on my birthday Feb 21st 2017. I wish I would have had the chance to say goodbye. You were special to me always had a smile and a kind heart, the last time I would get to see you was at the Soaring Eagle casino. Just wanted you to know I cared. Kevin you are a great guy! I know you are with God and at peace. Glad to have known you. Angie Partlo McCullum

“ K-9

I miss you so much already. I apologize I got there 10 minutes late. I wanted to tell you personally that I loved you other than the normal way "We did". I miss you fuss'n and Cuss'n and everybody knew thats how you showed your love for them. I am glad you always treated me like a brother and we bowled your final tournament together. I miss playing cards with you or should I say losing to you and then hearing you tell everybody that you were the best card player in Saginaw.

I know you are in heaven doing what "you do" creating havoc and letting everybody know you are there and Im pretty sure you have already found the Poker Room..

K-9, Thanks for being a "Brother Like No Other"..

Love you always..

Your Brother,

Tony aka "T.Bush"

“ It's Christmas Eve, and we are really missing you here. I had to float through my 30th without you which wasn't really the plan. I decided not to cry over it, because you told me I was being a baby, but instead decided to be thankful for making it this far. You made me a stronger person, a stronger mother, and a harder worker to get all the things I wanted and to reach my goals and for that, me and the boys will always be grateful. I bet there isn't a fish under 40 inches long where you're fishing now. You will be in my heart and thoughts for the rest of my life and I'm happy I was in the last lucky 7 years of yours. Through good and bad we always figured it out in the end and somehow now I will figure out what to do with all the voids in our lives. I miss you and can't wait to see you again. I love you baby. Take it easy.
