“ To the family you all are in my prayers. Me and Kawanna went to Webber together and like many others when zip came home I would often stop by Walgreens to say hi. You could always count on Kawanna for her smile. But what I am going to miss most is a LOL moment on Facebook you could count on that too. R.I.H Kawanna

“ Sometimes when we hear the Holy Spirit telling us to do something, we can tend to ignore it. I am so blessed that I followed what was put in in heart when I came to Saginaw for an Open House on the Sunday before she left us. I stopped by her job just to say hello, little did I know, it would be the last time we would talk. To the family, I am truly sorry for your loss. May God bless you all with his grace and understanding of his love for us all. I am going to miss seeing and talking with my friend.

“ To the Miles Family. So sorry to hear of the passing of Kawanna. She was a joy to visit with whenever I went into Walgreen. We always had a great conversation and she was as nice and helpful as she could be. We also became Facebook friends and shared some things. Know that she was a child of God and is resting with our Savior. I will truly miss her. In sympathy and prayers.

“ I was saddened to learn that one of the Lord's angels had gone home to be with our Father. Kwanna was a kind-hearted woman who got as much as she gave. What I will miss the most about her is her smile and her laugh. She always made me smile and laugh whenever I saw her. My prayers for strength are with the family and just know she will always be smiling down on all of you. It was a honor knowing such an amazing woman.

“ I cannot believe you are gone. You were the most fun-loving, kind person I have ever known. You and I have been friends forever. I was looking forward to seeing you when I came home for the 30 year reunion, but God had other plans for you. I know your baby girl, Stephanie was waiting for you in heaven. I love you. You always kept me up to date on things via Facebook whenever you and I talked. It was as if time stood still. My prayers go out to all of your family. You are ONE OF A KIND and will NEVER be forgotten. Love always, Kim
