“ To Ann & Larry (my cousins) prayers are going up for comfort & peace during this difficult time. God will, God will do just what he promised. My heart breaks as I write this message, but I know without a doubt we will get through this because God's strength is made perfect in weakness & we may never know the answer but God saw & knew. His promises of comfort will wipe the tears from our eyes. Prayers always ❤️❤️❤️ Rest my beautiful LaResha.

“ I new her for only about 5 years. We was neighbors on Dillon, we stay on the same apartment building. She was a good person asthma we had our ups and downs she was still a good person. She was a good mother to her 2 daughters that she had at the time and she never had her kids outside unless they was going somewhere and I don't much blame her because my daughter don't go outside either and it's sad that she won't be here to see her kids graduate from kindergarten, middle school high school and college or see them have kids of there own and get married. She loved her kids and I know we didn't know each other like that but I'm going to miss her
