“ I Just Googled Dr Larry E. Davis to see how he was doing in Pittsburg and this is what I found. I'm shocked and so sorry to hear of Larry's passing. He and I went through Vista Volunteer training in upstate New York in 1969. I knew him a little in Saginaw before we went into Vista. I stayed with him for a week in Brooklyn that summer during our training. He said he was going to parlay his Vista experience into an education and he certainly did. We had big fun together in New York. What a great career he had as an educator. I will miss my brother dearly. Sympathy and condolences to the family! R.I.P.

“ Wow..this is a shocker. Larry and I go back to childhood together. He taught me how to ride a bike. I've been blessed to see Larry several times over the years and I was always so proud of him and his accomplishments. One thing I really admired about him was that even with all the successes that he had in life he still remained grounded and was the same Larry that I knew as a child. Some people tend to forget where they came from, but not Larry. Take your rest my friend and I will see you "In the morning"!
