

Mr. Larry "Moose" Donnell Frierson

May 16, 1955 - May 1, 2024

Mr. Larry "Moose" Frierson was born on May 16, 1955 in Saginaw, Michigan to Grady and Lydia Mae Frierson.

He attended Saginaw Public Schools and was a proud graduate of Saginaw High School's "Class of 1973". Larry was an entrepreneur and was also employed by General Motors for over 30 years before his retirement in 2006. Although many knew Larry to be a tough guy, one of his favorite things to do was play games with his granddaughter, MaeLove, and take their special trips to Target. He also enjoyed celebrating the personal, academic and athletic achievements of his grandchildren.

He leaves his devoted wife, Patricia Frierson; four children, Dion Frierson of Saginaw, MI, Jeronica Frierson of Huntsville, AL, LaPricia Allen of Saginaw, MI and Veronica (Jacques) McClendon of Florissant, MO; six grandchildren Malachi, Elijah, Immanuel and MaeLove Allen, Delon Frierson and Maegan McClendon; one brother, Grady "Jack" Frierson of Saginaw, MI; one sister-in-law, Rose McZee of Flint, MI; bonus siblings, Searcy Blankenship of Brandywine, MD, James (Ruby) Blankenship, David Blankenship and Patrick Blankenship all of Memphis, TN; special nieces, Valeria Elmore of Saginaw, MI and Briana Elmore of Los Angeles, CA; his favorite nephew, Brian Still of Montgomery, AL; one special cousin, Doris "Honey" Davis; a host of other relatives including bonus son, Elmer Curry; godchildren and goddaughters, Simyra Haynie and Vanessa Curry.

Larry was known for being a hard-worker and as a person who loved to crack jokes. He was a former member of the Hustlers Motorcycle Club, and he passed his love for motorcycles onto his son. Moose enjoyed spending time with his friends as often as his schedule would allow. He also leaves friends, Raymond (Inez) Tyson, Greg Willis, Pastor Murry (Evelyn) Culberson, Doyse Lee, Elbert Young, David Vaughn, Dr. Willie Hill, The Jumper family and The Weathers family.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents; Grady and Lydia Mae Frierson; sister, Cora Still; brothers-in-law, Leslie Still and Tommie Allen.

The family would like to extend a special gratitude to Larry's very best friends, Raymond Tyson and Greg Wills. Words cannot explain how much your kindness, support and encouragement has impacted our family during this time.

“What an amazing person Larry was, with a remarkable life he lived! I feel so fortunate that he was a part of our family. Although we are mourning his passing with the rest of the family, we are also celebrating the life of this wonderful man. Our family will never be the same without him, but I am confident that we will find comfort in each other and get through this difficult time together. It is impossible to describe the impact Larry had on our family. He was always willing to lend a helping hand, come to your rescue, or just show up to check in on his family and friends. Larry will always live on in our hearts because he made a difference in many people's lives. I am grateful to have been his cousin and thankful for our shared memories.”

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Joshua 1: 9

“ Moose was a God fearing man with a big heart. He was the best landlord I ever had. When I called him because something was wrong in my house he fixed it. I called him big boss,, because he didn't worry about getting his rent. It would be two months before he showed up. He would say I am worried about you . I know you good for it. Good man are hard to find. God gave me a blessing to meet a landlord that cared about people. To the family,thank God that he gave you this good soul that tough so many people lives. “Wow, this is something, so sad to hear of this. My prayers go out to the whole family and that includes friends. Growing up on 22nd St., we were all pretty much family, everybody looked out for everybody, even when it came down to our kids they looked out for one another. Moose never did meet strangers, he was always the peacemaker, the reasoner, but he didn't play either, the helpful one, the nicest guy you could ever meet, the family guy, the real meaning of a friend. 🙏🙏

“Hey Pat, sending prayers, love and hugs to you and the family. You, Moose and I go back a long way and then our daughters became best friends. Continue to hold on to the memories you two have created over the years and know that GOD is most certainly a comforter.

Love,
Pamela

“ God designed us in His image and with emotions. Our tears for others reveals deep love and compassion. We can approach God whether silent, sobbed, or just a whisper, He hears all of our prayers. Thank You, dear Father, for the gift of Your Spirit's comfort! My Father the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, give Pat and her family the strength they need as they grief the loss of "Moose", and a longtime friend of my family.
