“ I will always remember Mr. West , he bailed me out of trouble so many times and he only did it because he knew that I was worth more then the life I was living at that time , he would be proud to know how much he changed my life.

“ Thinking back to when I first met Larry Jr.'s parents, I thought, “Wow! This man truly loves his children and wife unconditionally”. You never seen Larry Sr. without his wedding ring on and he always addressed JoAnn as “my wife”. The greatest asset Larry Sr. possessed was the way he protected his family. If I respect him for ANYTHING, it is his integrity towards those he loved. It’s an honor to know my son will carry on the “protective” legacy!

Godspeed to JoAnn, Lakin and Lakin. And, most importantly, Larry Jr. (keep your head up, my dude!)

“ If I had enough words to express the sad thoughts in my heart, I would use them. However, I can only think of one at this time, Love. Love like there is no tomorrow for we know not the hour, minute or second that we will see each other again. The last smile, the last lie, the last truths, and the last hug. Larry, I will miss those words that we shared at our last gathering but rest well my nephew for your test on earth is done. May God grant you an opening in his kingdom. Idella, Columbus. Ga
