“ Aunt Odell (Laura) We love you and you will always be remembered for your kind and encouraging words, and that laugh oh so dear. You are the last of your sibbling to leave us we will miss hearing your voice, miss seeing your face oh how we hate to see you leave us, but we know there is someone else welcoming you home with unconditional Love, giving you peace, no more pain, no more worries and we know God loves you and know he has called one of his children home. Now rest in your mansion
