“ Momma Dale, you are sure going to be missed but yet the memories I will always be able to cherish I have mixed emotions about your Home-Going yet I know God's has always walked besides you as you taught all of us who knows and is loved by you that you have to let God walk besides you as he's always there! When you walked there was never one set of footprints there was two until this time there was just one. What the question was asked why only one set of footprints now and God spoke softly my child you were tired weak and weary so I knew it was time that our walk shell continue only with my help so it was then that I picked you up and carried you home for you've done your job here. I have lots of great memories like all the baking you always enjoyed Uncle Percy loved he deserts as well as all of us kids so you made sure there was always something sweet prepared by your generous hand with love. Lemon pound cake, coconut cake, peach cobbler to name a few and how can I forget the time when I would deliver a few leftover apples from work and you'd bake a pie. I can go on and on but you along with a lot of others knows several stories of love from you!! We all know you are now reunited with uncle Percy as our Guardian Angels watching over us from above along with being reunited with all of those you've loved so much who has gone before us.

*How Beautiful Heaven Must Be
I Can Only Imagine*

With Love,

Wild Bill
