“Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted”

Matthew 5:4

Dear Mrs. Doris

God gave you a list of things that he wished you would do, and foremost on the list was to watch and care for your mother, and you did just that, so when you think back to all those loving years its bound to bring you to tears. For now, and always may your sorrow be softened by the presence of caring family, friends, natures tranquility, and your own inner strength. May the healing power of loving memories visit you in quiet moments and nourish your soul. I love you and may God's grace and mercy be with you in your time of sorrow.
