“ Our hearts are with you today. I knew Leo growing up at my father's church, in Saginaw. My husband was his roommate at Central Michigan, he was a good friend to my husband Tobin. Our prayers are with this entire family, and all those whose lives have been touch by this young man. We rejoice in knowing that he has joined that great cloud of witnesses! We know that we will all meet again, "on that great day!"

“ Gloria, what can I say when you loose someone you love. You have been a faithful wife, friend and a woman who love God. I know without a doubt that you're a woman of God, I have watch your walk and know what kind of family you came out of. Leo was blessed to have you as his help mate,as well as a soulmate. All I can say time will heal the pain of your loss. As the days goes on it get better. I didn't think , I would get over Mama leaving so soon, and I know, I love God, but I wanted to be selfish. People would make remarks that Mama was in a better place and I knew that. But I wanted her here with me in this life, that was my reality at that time. So what I will tell you is hold on and if it get hard know that God know how much each of us can bear. All I know that our thoughts are not HIS thoughts or our ways are HIS, just as the heavens are above the earth. His Glory & Divine will is beyond our earthly mind and HE see and knows our beginning and ending. So cry if you must and laugh if you need to, but know that this to will pass. I will be sending a more personal card later. My prayers & thoughts are with you and Bea,Dot,Carrie and Leo Family. Love yours in Christ, Elder William Dean Cooper Aka,Peter of Dallas-Ft.Worth(Metro)TX.

“ *Gloria,
Our thoughts of sympathy are and will be with you always. Leo was a wonderful neighbor and we all missed you very much when the time came and you moved. I remember talking to Leo when I would see him at the Citizen's Bank corn-beef luncheons and we renewed our friendship every time. We always complimented him on his lawn and he enjoyed it very much. He was an asset to our community. I'll miss him stopping by the house but now he shares in God's great glory. May his blessings be with your entire family.*

“ Dear Gloria and the Blanchard family,

Our prayers and deepest sympathies are with you and your family. Leo will always be remembered as a "fighter!" His courage and faith sustained him throughout his life, I truly admired him for those traits. His character never waivered nor faltered, his view of life always remained positive. He was always upbeat, this was always encouraging. He valued his friends and family, I truly count it a blessing to have known him and to be considered to be one of his friends.

Gloria, your courage, strenght and support of Leo is to be commended and applauded. Leo could not have asked for a better mate/best friend. It is our prayer that God will continually strenghten and bless you, throughout life's journey as we mature, we learn that "earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." Though it is painful and difficult now, as time passes the hurt you feel will subside, it never goes away, just becomes more bearable. Again, God bless you and your family

With Deepest Sympathy,

Adrian, Phyllis, Alyse and Lauren

“ My dear Gloria,

Know that God will never leave you, nor forsake you. Go with God. He is the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. God is in Control! (Hebrews 13:5,8).

Read Psalms 139.

*Remember that Death is not the end. Pray without ceasing; know that there is hope in God. "I Thessalonians 4:13
But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope." There is hope through Salvation.*

We love you Gloria and we shall continue praying for you. Remember to always seek God first (Matt. 6:33) in all of your endeavors. Your comfort comes from your Maker (as you will read about in Psalms 139). We all will miss Junior and we will all stick together as family. You are not alone.
