

Prophetess Leona V. Glenn

October 8, 1954 - December 15, 2023

Pastor/Prophetess Leona Viola (Aldridge) Glenn was born at Saginaw General Hospital on October 8, 1954. She was the youngest and smallest of the triplets, born to William Demone Aldridge, Sr., and Mary Viola Eugene (Erby) Aldridge.

Leona V. Aldridge was baptized by her father, Reverend William D. Aldridge Sr., at a young age. She actively participated in church activities at Christ Community Church, including Sunday School, youth ushering, choir, youth, and gospel choirs. She also started teaching Sunday School at a young age.

She attended Salina Elementary School, Webber Jr. High, and graduated from Saginaw High School in June 1972. She was a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, Michigan, majoring in Sociology while minoring in Black Studies. While attending EMU, she met the love of her life "James Leonard Glenn" of Detroit, Michigan. Her testimony in one of her university classes intrigued Mr. Glenn to want to know more about the Lord. This relationship blossomed into more than a bible study. Leona said, "The Lord said don't let him fall away." After dating for some time, she and James married on June 25, 1977. From this union, they were blessed with 5 children: Jacqueline, Jonathan, Patricia, Nathanael, and Jennifer.

James and Leona Glenn moved to Saginaw, Michigan, and started attending The Christ Community Church. They were ordained as ministers during the New Year's Eve service of 1978. This led to them leading Bible studies, youth ministry, and Sunday school classes under the guidance of Reverend William Aldridge. James announced that he and his wife had been called by the Lord to establish their own ministry. Rev. Aldridge released them in 1982. Leona and James started home bible studies and eventually moved their services to the YMCA in 1984, then to 719 Emerson St in 1988, and finally to 4375 S. Washington in 1997, Saginaw, Michigan.

Leona devoted her life to raising her own children and helping raise her sisters' and friends' children. She would take them on bus rides to the library, and parks, and conducted daily bible studies with them. The children adored her and loved her homemade meals, which were always delicious.

Pastor/Prophetess Leona Glenn was a Bible scholar, teacher, and preacher. If anyone wanted to learn about the Word, she was the go-to person- “a walking concordance.” Due to her love of reading, she developed a photographic memory and never forgot a word she read.

She worked as a substitute teacher in Saginaw Public Schools. She sang with Family Affair and was the TCT Prayer Coordinator. She was also the first African American woman on Ask The Pastor. She served on the Houghton Jones Neighborhood Task Force for 10 years, was the program director for the 4-H Club, and was the Prayer Coordinator for the National Day of Prayer for many years. She was a member of Church Women United, co-founded the Summer Youth Program for the city of Saginaw, and was a member of Top Ladies of Distinction and Women's Aglow. She was the founder of the Worshipping Warriors Conference and Prayer Plus Ministry.

Together Leona shared with her husband many church activities and seminars, including The Solid Rock Television Broadcast, The Solid Rock Bible Institute, Word Explosion Classes, Mayor's Crime Task Force, Ezekiel Project, Northeast Ministerial Alliance, Eastside Ministers Initiative, City Rescue Mission, Eastside Soup Kitchen, Good Neighbors Mission, Saginaw Teen Challenge, Saginaw County Prison, Bancroft-Eddy Church Services, City-Wide Tent Festivals, Many Outreaches Evangelistic Projects, The Church of Saginaw, Michigan Council of Community Churches, Healthsource Church Services, Azusa Fellowship, and Network of Christian Churches.

She leaves to cherish her memory, husband James Glenn (46 years), children: Jacqueline (Christopher) Jackson, Jonathan (Alice) Glenn, Patricia (Hubert) Brown; grandchildren: Dominique, Kenyana, Jaden, Christopher (Josiah), Zoe, Nathanael, Zaida, Hazel, Thaddeus, Viola, Jayden, A'nya, Nia, and Nailah; sisters: Joyce (Dr. Eugene) Seals, Carolyn (Terry) Pruitt, Mary McDonald, Demona (Glenn) Reed, William Aldridge, Audrey Parker; in-laws: Carol (Jimmie) Davis, Reginald (Alesia) Glenn and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members, special friend (Effie B. Bryant), and her God-mother, Mrs. Elsie McDaniel who loved her and will miss her greatly.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William D. Aldridge, Sr., Mary Viola Eugene (Erby) Aldridge; sister, Ouida Aldridge; children Nathanael and Jennifer.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Majad Nader and the nursing staff from the Intensive Care Unit at Covenant Cooper for their exceptional care and support. Finally, special thanks are extended to Demona Reed (her triplet sister), and Primary Care Physician (niece) Dr. Delicia Pruitt for their unwavering love and dedicated care provided daily.

The family will greet guests of Prophetess Glenn at 10:00 a.m. with the funeral service commencing at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, December 23, 2023 at World Outreach Campus, 2405 Bay Road, Saginaw, MI 48602 Dr. Anthony Revis will preside. Apostle James Glenn will officiate with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Bishop Hurley J. Coleman, Jr. Host Pastor. Visitation will take place at the funeral home on Friday, from 2:00 until 7:00 p.m.

“ I am so sorry to hear about prophetess Leona. I was so blessed to have known her. I have learned a lot of things from her including cooking. The last time I saw her was at the store and sneak behind her and gave her and gave her a hug and a kiss. I learned much of God's word because of her. You would share private matters with her and she wouldn't tell a soul but would pray for you right then and there. She was a true woman of God and will be greatly missed.

I remembered when I broke my leg and was off of work for a few months, prophetess Leona would cooked me some homemade food and bring it over to my house. Also, her and apostle James would make sure my son and daughter wouldn't miss church. The list can go on of what a wonderful woman of God she was. I never will forget her act of kindness towards me and children. I will never forget all the times she would come over to visit me. I just wanted to share my memories with her on a personal level and taught me how to pray victory over myself. Thank God for her being a listening ear. I was in my 20's and some times a little green behind the ears but thank God for planting her in my life. She definitely won't be forgotten.

“ Thankful to have been with Prophetess Leona and Apostle! I’ve learned a lot & received so much! I am saddened about Prophetess, however I’m reminded of the words she always said, “Shawnette, we go from faith to faith & glory to glory!” I learn a lot from her! I know how to fight in the realm of the spirit because of her! I am who I am because God placed her and Apostle in my life & pushed me to pray, prophesy, and war like a warrior! I’m thankful! And it’s a peace although sad, but to know she has entered In and to hear the faithful powerful words of our Father “Well done thy Good and faithful servant Leona!” Wow! Love You Apostle, And the family!❤️🙏

“ To Aldridge and Glen family , my prayers are with you all. Leona was a sweet soul, always kind and loving to everyone. When we were kids she would cook and using us to test her food to tell her how it tastes. Our families on the southside were very close and we played together. I will always remember how we played fourth square on Bundy Street and the line were so long. Everyone waiting for there turn. Those were great memories that we had as children one Bundy Street. Leona never change . She was a sweet soul that God placed on this earth to help people to know God's grace,love, mercy and to understand God's will for us .My sister in the Lord, I will keep the memory of you alive in my heart. Sleep on my sister and rest. I believe God is smiling 😊 on his daughter, saying well done come home and rest.Linda Buckley Bolton

I knew her from TCT, she knew the word and she was a rare jewel, with words of wisdom, that touch the heart, soul and mind. I am grateful that she prayed and mentored me because of her my life changed for the better, to make wiser decisions especially in important health and everyday matters. Knowing heaven is my home with a secure safety that I am in his loving arms, with no fear. I rededicated my life...I am truly grateful that the love she shared and her Christian upbringing by her parents, that her legacy will live on. Knowing her family will pass it on. I know she was not ashamed of the gospel and had a desire to win souls for the Lord. I will remember her smile and how she touched my heart, mind and soul. Knowing love conquers all. He cares and he knows what is best. So, he picked this flower, and she finished her journey and won. Allowing, her family will pass on the torch of love. I learned some things, you have to give to the Lord, pray, let go and move forward. She believed in fasting and praying. I know her homegoing celebration will be very short and sweet. Having praise, testimonies and souls will be saved and/or someone away from home, in the military, in need services or directed to another church will reach out to family, the church, funeral home or community. Wish I could attend will be there in spirit for support and lift you up now in prayer, during the holidays and always. This is my prayer to you and those who have lost love ones or have a need.

“ Sending our prayers and love to the family of our Beloved Prophetess. Though my family and I didn't have as many years with her as others, we loved her so much for the over 6 years that we've been at Center of Attraction. She has touched and made such an impact on us that we will never be the same. We are so thankful to God that He in His Infinite Wisdom allowed us the opportunity to know her. Strength and Blessings to her Beloved Family.
Sincerely,
