“ To the Atkins Family: I didn't know Mrs. Atkins personally but listening to the passionate stories your son Leron shared about his upbringing felt as if I did know her. Sorry for your loss knowing no loss is easy trust in the Lord to help you through this difficult time. Leron and Evelyn have been apart of the HDI Family for quite sometime and we would like for you to know if there is anything we can do for you to please let us know. Leron goes above and beyond to make sure our safety needs are taken care of, amongst other things and we more than appreciate what he does for us.

“ I will never forget Ms. Atkins, as I was growing up I would see her walking around Saginaw, not knowing who she was until she became a patient at HealthSource Saginaw, I remember her so well because by me working in the lab and had to draw her blood she would always tell me " you got one shot and this is where your going to get it". Yes she knew exactly what she was talking about. There was days when I would hear her singing and to hear anyone singing just brought joy to my heart. It was my pleasure meeting Ms. Lillian yes she would fuss because she said that we just wanted some good ole blood. hahaha Rest on Ms Lillian

“ To my Aunts and Uncles: no matter what type of relationship you have with your mother, it is always hard to lose her. I lost my mother at 15 yrs old and life has been rough. You all were truly blessed to have your mother for more 40 yrs. My grandma was an amazing woman in her own way. I loved to stay with my grandma when I was little...then I got older. She used to take me everywhere, it wasn't anyplace spectacular, but she took me wherever she went. She used to bake me teacakes and make me homemade ice cream, and homemade donuts, when she used to live on 5th & Walnut. I don't eat popcorn very often to this day because it just doesn't taste like it did back in the day when my grandma used to make it in her popcorn maker. Believe it or not. I still have the burn mark on my stomach I got when she lived on N. 5th!!! I will miss my grandma, she taught me a lot...more than anyone will ever know.
