“ When one you love has shared your life for many years, has empathized and understood through sad or happy tears, the loss of that companion must seem more than you can bear, and those who love you want to let you know how much they care.

“ We had good times together as children, we loved each other, we played together and you always made me laugh and we got a few whippings together but I will always love you.
I will miss you my dear cousin, you was more like a big brother to me. Although I'll miss you a whole lot, you will always be in my heart. When you sing in that Ole' Heavenly Choir, sing loud enough so we may hear your voice in the wind.

With Love

“ We had good times together as children, we loved each other, we played together and you always made me laugh, we got a few whippings together because sometimes we were partners in our childhood mischeivous adventures. I love you and will miss you my dear cousin, you was more like a big brother to me, rather than a cousin.
Although I'll miss you a whole lot, you will always be in my heart. When you sing in that "Ole' Heavenly Choir", sing loud enough so we may hear your voice in the wind. For we all know this is not the end. Because one sweet day we'll see each other again...

Always With Love

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mr. Powel at Browne's Mortuary. I always looked forward to seeing Mr. Powel rush through the door as if he was on his way to a fire with his hat in one hand and lunch sack in the other. He took his job seriously. He would almost jump out of his shoes to greet someone at the door and say, "To your left, to your left" with his arm extended pointing the way. And I swear he had a pair of shoes to match every suit in his closet.

He will be missed

“ May the God who gives us peace everlasting, be with you in your time of bereavement. May you look to the hills from whence cometh your help. Your help comes from the Lord. I love all you dearly, and pray God will strengthen you daily. Whenever you feel that void in your life, just call on Jesus. He knows how to feel it with his love.
