

Lorenza Miller

July 23, 1928 - January 10, 2013

Mr. Lorenza Miller, husband, father and grandfather passed away Thursday, January 10, 2013 at the age of 84 years. He was born July 23, 1928 in Chattahoochee, Alabama to the late Abe Miller and Nancy (Delmer) Johnson.

Lorenza was a veteran of the Korean Conflict and a retiree of the Grey Iron Foundry. He was member and head deacon at Ephesus Seventh-Day Adventist Church since 1955. He was an avid lover of holistic medicine and known as a "health nut". His passion was electrical work. He was also proficient in carpentry and plumbing. He was a teacher and he taught many people his trade. He was a Jack-of-all-trades.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Florine Miller; daughter, Nancy Rowe; one grandson; and a host of relatives and friends, including a special niece, Roselyn Turnage, special cousin, Sylvia Reed and special friend, Barbara Jones.

His son, Michael Miller, preceded him in death.

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 16, 2013 at the Ephesus Seventh Day Adventist Church, 2115 Wadsworth Street. Pastor Leon George will officiate with interment in Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly, MI. Friends may call at the Evans & Browne's Funeral Home, 441 North Jefferson Avenue, on Tuesday from 2:00 until 8:00 p.m.

“ My family and I are sad to hear of your loss and just wanted to share a comforting scripture from God's word the bible. Found at John 5:28,29 where it talks of a time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out. Don't we all look forward to seeing them again. Well we hope that this gives you comfort.
