“ I'm so grateful Lori had the strength and the courage to give me a better life then she could have at the time. That showed the love and the unselfishness she had for me at such a young age. And for that I'm grateful everyday of my life. She was able to give a gift of life to an amazing family and friends who were trying for years. She was able to give a blessing, happiness, love, a dream come true for my parents and family/friends. And for that my parents and family/friends are also grateful for Lori. It takes a strong person to do what she did. She had such a big heart at such a young age- from the sounds of it, she always had a big heart. Always there with her arms wide open to give a warm hug. I know it must have been hard for her. But God has a plan for all of us, and Lori was apart of my parents plan in our journey of life. I didn't know Lori to well, really don't have to many stories to tell. We were getting to know each other a little better that last few months. I'm grateful Lori had the chance to meet me before her passing that must have meant the world to her. Cause I know it did me. Well MS. Lori Sue, Rest in Peace. Now it's your turn to watch down on us with a smile.
