I don't recall the exact year when my grandparents moved into the home next to Mr. & Mrs. Colvin on S. 28th when I was a young girl. What I do distinctly remember is Mrs. Colvin being a kind woman that had a hearty laugh and big smile. As I grew older, I came to realize that she also had a heart as large as her smile. We often chatted across the fence about any number of things. I will always fondly remember her. RIP Mrs. Colvin. If you happen to see either of my grandparents, or parents even, give them a big hug for me.
