“Ava, I am truly sorry for the loss of your Mother (2-01-08) and your Auntie (2-03-2008). I really had the greatest pleasure of knowing Mrs. Lula, and listening to her stories from her growing years to giving me words of wisdom. GOD bless you and your family. GOD had a plan for Mrs. Lula and her sister, he needed his Angels near him, take comfort in knowing that you all now have some special guardian Angels to watch over you. Mrs. Lula, you don't have to suffer anymore, I know that you are OK now, and that you are with GOD now.

Ava, Just remember that you did 100% of what you could have done for Mrs. Lula, you quit doing the things that you enjoyed doing to be at home to make sure that Mrs. Lula was well taken care of, you made sure that she went to the Dr., that her medicines was dispensed correctly and on time, you made sure that she had a meal at least three times a days, that she had clean clothes and a cleaned house, you made sure that your brother had the things that he needed, that he was able to talk to Mrs. Lula and etc.... Ava you did all of this, so don't you worry about NOTHING, right now all you need to do is walk around with your head up, cause you were there for your MOTHER, right now she's feeling no pain and smiling down on you saying "THANK YOU" my child. If there's anything that you need or need to talk about, girl I'm right here, Love ya Like A Sister, Denee'

“ Being one of two grandchildren, it is very hard for me to let me Grandma Flood go. It seems like yesterday when she was giving me money and lots of hugs and kisses. Those memories will never be taken away. I can still remember her loving and funny stories that she used to tell when I went to visit her. She loved all of us very dearly, and we will remember her. I know I remember her great strength and love and compasion.

This happened so sudden, I was expecting her to be at my graduation. But I know her presence will be there. She loved me dearly, she showed her love throgh funny jokes and sending cards on birthdays. I am really sorry for my aunt, who I call Auntie Ava. She stuck by my side through alot of things. Even though she was yelling!(hahaha)I really loved my grandmoter and I know she loved me. You'll be missed Grandma Flood.
