

Mrs. LuWanna Pruitt

July 22, 1956 - April 20, 2019

Our beloved mother, sister, and friend, LuWanna Pruitt, gained her heavenly wings on Saturday April 20, 2019 at the age of 62 years. LuWanna was the definition of a faith warrior. In her own words, she stared fear in the face and destroyed its hold over her. Cancer did not win!

LuWanna was born on July 22, 1956 and raised in Chicago, Illinois. Her parents are Lillian Randolph and Roosevelt Washington Jr. LuWanna was the oldest of three children. In 1983, LuWanna met the late Rev. Thorner L. Pruitt in her hometown, Chicago, and it was love at first sight. LuWanna and Thorner were married six months later and remained married until his untimely passing in 2001. Their union produced two sons that they deeply adored, Melvin and Michael Pruitt.

LuWanna remained in Saginaw, Michigan for the duration of her life where she was a teacher and administrator for 35 years in the Buena Vista, Bridgeport, and Saginaw Public School systems. LuWanna attended and faithfully served at Saginaw Valley Community Church and was a member of the United Sisters in Christ. LuWanna accepted the call of God on her life and was ordained an apostolic prophetic gift to the body of Christ. She studied under the leadership of Apostle Dr. Peggy Jo Mason, founder of Worship in Motion, Detroit, Michigan and regularly ministered in prophetic dance and mime. As a Health Minister, LuWanna founded L.I.V.E Healthy!, a ministry that served the needs of those who desired to overcome sickness and disease and live a healthier, victorious lifestyle. LuWanna portrayed Kingdom living through her teachings, testimonies, and worship, and she IS a cancer overcomer! Her last great project, published two weeks before her transition, Breaking Through the Darkness: A Love Ballad Vol. One, is a testament to this.

LuWanna will be truly missed by her sons Melvin (Ashley) Pruitt and Michael (Kimberly) Pruitt, her mother Lillian Randolph, father Roosevelt Washington, Jr., brothers Ken (Jana) Washington, Ron (Kathy) Washington, William Randolph Jr, Milton Randolph, Michael Randolph, and Gregory Randolph, a host of nieces and nephews, God child Auspria Douglas, and her spiritual sisters Sharrie Williams-Crawford, Mary Jackson, Mother Mae Wathan, Lisa Coleman, Pat Brummell, Harriet Douglas, and Cherryl Biggins. LuWanna also leaves to cherish her memory, her best friend and special love, Michael Green, who never left her side.

LuWanna was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Thorner L. Pruitt, her stepfather William Randolph (Papa Bill), and her step-sister Pamela.

The family would like to thank Pastors Dick and Pat Sayad and the Saginaw Valley Community Church family, Dr. Bazzi, Covenant Hospital Oncology and ER staff, Francis Reh Academy, and those who continuously poured love and support into LuWanna throughout her life. Your love and prayers have carried us through this difficult time.

“Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.” 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, April 27, 2019 at

“ The University of Michigan-Flint's Global Program was graced and transformed by LuWanna. During two consecutive summers of study in Geneva, Switzerland (2011-2012), her presence, intellectual contribution, and concern for the well-being of others was both distinctive and humbling. The professors and students of the Global Program were blessed by LuWanna, as were the staff at Geneva's John Knox Center whom she came to know so very well. On behalf of the broader Global Program and University of Michigan community, we hope that LuWanna has found peace and rest. You changed us all, LuWanna, and we are better educators - and better people - because of your warmth and wisdom.

“ TO THE FAMILY OF THE LATE GREAT LUWANNA PRUITT, To Michael, Melvin, Kim, and everyone , LuWanna was truly a woman of great faith and endurance. She showed us all how to never give up on God. She believed Him until the end. Although she endured much pain, she never complained, she just gave God the praise. LuWanna will be greatly missed by hundreds of people. I am so happy she was able to become a published author just before her home going. She encouraged me in ways she will never know & she did hundreds of other people , probably even thousands. Rest on my friend, I will cherish your encouraging words

“ I will miss my dear sister in the faith and co-laborer in the Gospel. What a beautiful light she was in the earth and what glory our Father received from her life! I could always count on her smile and warm embrace when I saw her. Her eyes would look right through me and she always said something encouraging that I needed to hear. She inspired me to be a better believer. I am so grateful for the many years she partnered with me in teaching at-risk kids and girls how to engage in a personal and deep relationship with God through the Agape Love Explosion. She is surely dancing before our Father and her memory and impact will live on. I am so thankful she pushed to have her book published a few weeks ago and we had the chance to partner for a local book fair. She has left us with a gift of godly wisdom that will encourage so many more. May God continue to bless her family.

“ I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance
I hope you dance
I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
Lovin' might be a mistake, but it's worth makin'
Don't let some Hellbent heart leave you bitter
When you come close to sellin' out, reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
