

Ms. Madeline Annette Jones

December 16, 1967 - February 5, 2022

Madeline Annette Jones affectionately known as “Mz. Maddy” was born December 16, 1967 in Boston, Massachusetts to Ryland Jones and Edna Jones. Madeline. She moved to Saginaw, Michigan at a very early age, where she spent her most memorable years.

She graduated high school in 1986, then went on to study at Delta College. She also attended M.J. Murphy Cosmetology School of Saginaw, and soon after received her licensure as a Cosmetologist. In later years she became a nurse.

She was a member of Coleman Temple C.O.G.I.C. Her membership was inspired by her mentor Hurlette Coleman, where she sang in the choir.

She first served as a nurse in the state of Michigan, then later moved to Mississippi to continue her service. She was known by her patients and coworkers as a caring, loving, and nurturing individual. Madeline was also well-known as a stylist in the City of Saginaw, and was the owner of Twist N Turns Beauty Salon.

To know Madeline is to love her. She was beloved by her family, friends, and the community. She enjoyed traveling. Her vibrant personality touched the lives of many, she always highlighted the good in others. Her children and family hold dear memories of her strong faith in God. She didn't believe in worrying, instead she believed in handing the troubles of this world over to God. She lived a zestful life leaving behind many precious memories with family and friends.

She leaves to cherish memories, six children, Ciaira C. (Lorenzo) Jones-Sparks and Marquavious M. Jones both of Fort Wayne, IN, Mysteriah M. Jones, Sherman L. Jones, Sonya C. Jones of Columbia, SC, and Craig L. Jones all of Greenville, MS; a bonus daughter, Stacie Garrett; 22 grandchildren; her mother, Edna C. Madeline's family would like to give special thanks to Glenn Jackson of Greenville, MS, her loving, kind, and supportive fiancé and father figure to her youngest son, Craig. He has made these last few years special and memorable.

“ remember in the 6th grade at Jessie Rouse. At that time the 6th grade boys were shorter and smaller than some of the girls. Madeline, much taller then, used hit the boys in the arm really hard and then run (sometimes ran to Ms. Coleman). Too funny. Also, there were many many fun times with Madeline, Sherman, Sonya, Michelle and Andrea in the neighborhood as well. Madeline will be missed. Condolences to the Jones and Valentine families.
