“ To The Dulaney Family My prayers are with you. I'm sorry to here about your mother. I remember when we were kids she would always wear big hats in the summer well now I know she was doing the right thing by keeping the sun directly out of her face this is my memory of her May God be with your family.

“ To the Dulaney Family - my deepest sympathy during your time of loss. I can still remember your mother from when I was in high school; I remember that she always kept a beautiful, clean home and that she was a very pleasant and caring individual, especially to her children.

My kindest regards to you all,

Gwen Sharper
