Mrs. Faulk was my 5th grade elementary school teacher. She was one of the best teachers I had throughout my academic growth. She lead by example and showed how to be a strong African American proper lady. I appreciate her and pray God's peace comforts and strengthens Sherwin, Marie and Gabrielle and they can smile when memories of her come back and even laugh.

“ Mrs. Maggie was so sweet and dear. I always have a gallon of water with me n she would ask me, you buy a new one every time or you refill it? Once she found out I buy a new water every time she was so surprised. She would tell me how she use to fill her water jug half way up n freeze it over night, then fill the rest of her container up with water on her way to work. And she also let me know that she would never buy water!!!! Lol!! Im going to miss our conversations! You are so missed already Mrs. Maggie. Prayers for your loved ones! 💕

“ Mrs. Faulk was my teacher when I lived in Townhouse Village and I believe she was one of the first teachers when they built Charles C. Coulter. We went to her house and made cookies and cupcakes. She was the Best and Sweetest Teacher a kid/person could ever ask for. Rest on Mrs. Faulk. My prayers to the entire family.

“ My heart is filled and heavy with sorrow upon reading of the passing of Soror Maggie Faulk. She was the epitome of Finer, dedicating her time to mentoring new members and support the chapter with years of service.

I cherish the wonderful memories of our time in Zeta together-laughing during the chapter meetings, dancing around the room during our meal breaks, and sitting at her feet, soaking in her wisdom and memories of Zeta Omega Zeta and being a Zeta. Her presence and sisterly love were a gift to us all.

My love and deepest condolences to Triumphant Soror Faulk.

“ Maggie Faulk: has reached her final resting place. Great friend, Great teacher, and a Great talker. She welcomed me to Coulter school. We talked almost everyday, Sometimes we cried too. Each morning she made a U turn to come by my classroom to talk. She never made that turn before. She was a great cook. Shared some of her tasty dishes with us Sleep on my friend. We will meet on that beautiful Shore. Family keep those great memories flowing that she left you.

“ Both of my sons were students at C.C. Coulter Elementary school where she taught . She was caring, but stern. Every child needed a teacher like her. Years later I had the opportunity to meet with her again and reintroduced myself and my sons. She remembered them. She commented they were good boys. That meant a lot coming from her. Rest well Mrs. Faulk! You've earned your Heavenly wings. Praying with love and sympathy for the family.
