

Malcolm Youngblood

October 27, 1954 - April 21, 2006

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 5, 2006 at the Greater Coleman Temple C.O.G.I.C., 2716 Wadsworth. Elder H. J. Coleman, Jr. Pastor. Pastor Eddie Brown will officiate with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Arrangements entrusted to the Browne's Mortuary, 441 N. Jefferson Ave. Deacon Malcolm Youngblood, our beloved brother, father and uncle, went home on April 21, 2006. He was born October 27, 1954 to the late Willie and Willie Mae Youngblood. Deacon Youngblood was a very faithful and dedicated member of Love Center Outreach for 17 years and a very dear friend of his pastor, Pastor Eddie Brown. He served as a Sunday School Superintendent, singer, speaker, and teacher. Malcolm graduated from Saginaw High School in 1973. He retired from the Grey Iron Foundry in 1994 and was a member of UAW Local 668. Deacon leaves many to cherish his memories: his children, Tatianna, Miesha, Deandrey, Malcolm, Jr. and Cameron Youngblood; two grandchildren, Jaquayveon and Tamareana Youngblood; sisters, Agrony Youngblood-Thomas and Bobby Payton; brothers, Jake Youngblood, and other siblings, all of Saginaw; aunts, Callie Baker of Saginaw, Mattie Ivy of Chicago and Itonia Garrett of Brooklyn, New York; uncles, Eddie Baker and a special and dear uncle, Sam Baker, both of Saginaw; several more aunts and uncles in Alabama; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including special friends, his coon buddies, Freddie Foster, Kimberly Thompson, Mary Rance. A special thanks to Douglas Lofaro, Mr. Albert and Douglas Lofaro and everyone else who tried to rescue Deacon Youngblood.

“ Though its been over 25 or more years I never stoped thinking of you, you were funny you were sweet and kind, I know you never stoped thinking of me as well my family told me you asked of me all the time. You certainly will be missed, I pray I will see you on the other side.
To the family weeping may in dure for a night but joy will come in the morning
