“ To the family of Evang. Knox, know that you mother, sister, aunt...was a true woman of God to the core. Her body left this place, but know that she is resting where her faith led her. She loved God with her life.

I had the blessed pleasure of meeting Evang. Knox about 15 years ago at a bus stop. At the lowest point in my life at 17, i was going through a lot, even contemplated suicide. But God said not so! As i prepared for school on a cold day in March, i missed my school bus. Not having any other way to school, i had to catch the city bus. I walked to the closest bus stop near me and as i approached it, i seen an old lady standing there. She greeted me with a smile, asked how i was and asked if i knew God. She handed me a "track", and asked if id go to church with her on Sunday. I said yes. The bus came, she and i got on. She sat next to me, and we conversed more...Sunday came, i went to church and that day, i ga e my life to Christ. I thank Evang. Knox for her witness that day. She naturally saved my life :)
