“ We were shocked and surprised when we found out about her passing. Marcella was a wonderful person that We talked to easily and developed a friendship. We traveled from Arkansas to visit my Uncle Pre and we enjoyed fellowshiping with her as well. We (Patrick Thames and Family) are sad yet happy knowing that she made her heavenly home secure.

“ You were only in my moms room 506 about 9 days! The 2 times I was able to come inside we had a wonderful time! The other great times was because I was at moms window singing and praying with you and mom.

The day before you passed, we prayed, you spoke in tongues, and we touched heaven. The prayer was so good we never said goodbye but I just walked out the room with I love you both! Thank you for seeing after my mom and mom seeing after you those few days. Thank you for sharing with me, HOW YOU VIEWED ME TAKING GREAT CARE OF MY MOTHER and TOLD ME NOT TO WORRY ABOUT THE NAYSAYERS! You said keep doing what you doing for your MOTHER! I will never forget you for sharing that with me! You said you couldn't wait to finish therapy so you could go home to finish taking care of your father.

Rest well knowing you will meet our savior one day! I love you for loving mom! One of the most important things you shared with me was how you fainted in the floor about 3 days before you left us and how my mom hollered until someone heard her and came in the room and rescued you!

We love you, from ENNIE & CANDY PEARSON!

See you later Marcella Jones!
