“ nephew my heart has weep so for you. when i heard of the passing of this life that you shared here on this side of heaven with me. I'll nerver forget your smile and your great big heart. how you just gave so much of yourself to others, wheather the sun was shinning in your life or life was a little cloudy. You were always there for others. Negativity was never a word in your vocabulary. So today we will hold our head up high. knowing that the word of God , still stands true: that all things work together for them that love the Lord and are call according to his purpose. so venessa, look up and get up. Boo I've never had the opportunity to meet you but I know this one thing you are the father of all of your siblings, now just relax in your BIG DADDY'S arms

“ To Boo and the family may God bless you and keep you. I know it hurts and its gonna take some time to heal but just trust in God and let him guide you. Marcus is was a funny guy when he was in Kroger talking mess. He always had jokes. But he's going on with our father who knows best. Sometimes we don't understand but in time we will.

Love you all!

“ Man, oh, man! I really miss the way you used to make me laugh at Webber Jr. high.
I would always have to stay after school, because I couldn't stop laughing in miss Shelby's 7th hr. English class! (lol)....
But, yeah, Marcus, that's what we'll miss about you the most. Your ability to create sunshine on a cloudy-day!!!!!!
God bless your soul, and may he be with you and your family for Eternity!!!!!!

“ Corey and family, I'm really sorry about the lost of Marcus, I had the pleasure of meeting Marcus back in the day when I moved to Saginaw, he was a great person with a big HEART and a beautiful SMILE. Keep his spirit alive, always talk about the good and bad times you all shared, when you need someone to listen to you call on him for he will give you the time. "For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness" Psalms 84:10

“ "HE IS ONLY AWAY"
He is only away in your thoughts and your heart, you are always together, never apart...
In your sorrow, remember, he's only away, though he may not be with you the memories stay..... And in time, when the hurt isn't too much to bear, whenever you look in your heart he will be there.

“ To Big Red:

Words cannot begin to express what's in my heart when I think of my cousin Big Red. I remember all the things we did as kids growing up. There wasn't a weekend that went by without us staying the at each others house, playing basketball, wrestling for the Title on Big Rock's porch, and dreaming about the future as we slept underneath our version of a tent which we called a "Pig".

In all these years I never envisioned how difficult it would be to say good by to someone so full of life and joy as my cousin. I can't ever recall us having a conversation that ended without one of us saying, "I love you Cuz". I never thought of Marcus as just my cousin, we were more like brothers. I'll always cherish the memories of us growing up and forever keep you in my heart. So today, instead of saying good by to my cousin; I celebrate the homecoming of my brother..... I know you wouldn't want it any other way.

I love you brother,

“ It's been one year today my friend and I still think of you often. You always knew what to say to make me laugh and I miss that so much. I think about all the fun we (all 10 of us) had in ATL in '93 and it makes me laugh out loud. I'm thankful for the good memories and I feel blessed that God gave me some special times with you. RIP my friend,
