Many aunts hold a special place in the hearts of their nieces and nephews. Aunts are often a source of good, unbiased advice and wonderful friendships. Understandably then, coping with the loss of an aunt can be especially difficult. Many people find solace in crying, talking, and writing about their aunt. Sharing special stories about an aunt with others and reliving shared experiences can keep her alive in memory. It is also a way to celebrate the value of life and family relationships and even validate our reason for living.

“ To the Wright and Tolliver Family whom I have known since a child growing up in Carrollton. To God be the glory. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. Marie--a lady of character, an educator, a leader, a role model and a phenomenal woman of God. Many special ed students that she taught went on to become leaders and professionals thanks to her expert guidance. In the card that she gave me at my son Trent's viewing one month ago she addressed me as her childhood friend. I'll always remember her beautiful smile and who she was in Christ. Family, look to the hills from which cometh your help. Your help comes from the Lord. You will always be in my prayers. We love you.

“Dr. Marie Wright Tolliver was a beacon of light and hope for so many not only in the State of Michigan, but around the country. As I served as Director of Development for the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs and Youth Affiliates (NACWC), I witnessed Dr. Tolliver live up to the motto of the organization, "Lifting As We Climb", with dignity and class. Her leadership within the NACWC was second to none and she always focused on the value of her faith to Almighty God.

It's one thing to refer to someone as an angel, but Dr. Tolliver was indeed a Saint to many. I can say I will miss her, but one can never miss someone who is in your heart as it beats of the wonderful things that she has instilled in so many of us.

She taught me how to lead with that same dignity and class displayed within the NACWC. And that is what I shall always cherish.

Rest in Heaven my dearest Dr. Tolliver.
