

Deacon Marshall "Coach T" Thomas

August 29, 1947 - November 17, 2025

Marshall Othella Thomas, affectionately known as “Coach T”, was born on August 29, 1947, in Saginaw, Michigan, to Pearlie and Cora Nell (Blackburn) Thomas. He married Yvonne D. Tijndaal on August 18, 1973, in Saginaw, Michigan and was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, great-uncle, mentor, and friend — a pillar of strength, faith, and love within his family and community. On Monday, November 17, 2025, at the age of 78, after a lengthy illness and surrounded by loved ones, our beloved Coach T peacefully entered the arms of the Lord.

Marshall was educated in the Saginaw Public Schools, attending Morley and Houghton Elementary Schools, Arthur Eddy Junior High, and graduating from Saginaw High School, Class of 1966. While at Saginaw High, he excelled in athletics, participating in football, basketball, and track and field. He continued his education at Western New Mexico University (WNMU) from 1966 to 1972, earning both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees. During his collegiate years, he played two years of basketball and two years of football, leading the nation in punt returns at the NAIA level in 1967. He also competed in track for four years, earning MVP honors as a junior.

Upon returning home to Saginaw, Marshall began a remarkable coaching and teaching career that spanned 33 years. He coached football, track, golf, cross country, and basketball at his beloved alma mater, ultimately becoming best known as the boys' varsity basketball coach. He spent three years coaching the girls' varsity team, compiling a 53–13 record, and 22 years coaching the boys' varsity team, amassing an exceptional 381–133 record. Under his leadership, the Trojans won the 1995–1996 Michigan Boys Class A State Championship.

On the court, he led with discipline, strategy, and heart, shaping young athletes not only in skill but also in character. Off the court, he served the Saginaw community with the same dedication. He earned seven regional Coach of the Year awards and four Class A Coach of the Year honors. Marshall also served as Saginaw High's athletic director and later worked with the Michigan High School Athletic Association as a color commentator during the boys' basketball state championship games.

After retiring from Saginaw Public Schools in 2009 as an administrator, Marshall continued to pour into young people as a substitute teacher within the district and as a devoted math tutor, known throughout the community for his patience, generosity, and commitment to education.

To some, he was Marshall; to many, he was Coach T or Deacon Thomas, but to Yvonne, his loving wife of 52 years, he was her husband; he was her soul mate and her protector; he was a steadfast partner, leading with a consistent quiet strength. He was dependable and devoted, always ensuring their home was filled with love and stability.

As a father, he showed up for everything, big or small. He never missed a moment to teach, guide, or encourage. He led by example, teaching his daughters the lessons that truly matter: integrity, service, and the power of showing up. He exemplified to his children how to carry themselves in the world, to love their community, and to never stop giving.

As a grandfather, he went above and beyond. He would rearrange his days, offer to help before being asked, and do whatever it took to ensure his grandchildren and great-grandchildren had every opportunity to succeed.

Marshall was a faithful member of Holy Communion Gospel Center, where he served as an ordained deacon. He taught bible study and was deeply committed to the jail ministry, serving those incarcerated with compassion, humility, and an unwavering faith.

A passionate golfer, he spent many summers on the course. He achieved the remarkable milestone of four hole-in-ones and treasured the camaraderie, laughter, and memories formed with friends on and off the greens.

Marshall's leadership, skill, and dedication earned him numerous honors and opportunities to serve:

- Western New Mexico University Athletic Hall of Fame – 2004
- Saginawian of the Year – 2009
- Saginaw County Sports Hall of Fame – 2011
- Michigan High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame – 2014
- City of Saginaw Public Schools Foundation Board - 2010-2025
 - o Vice President
 - o Saginaw Promise Liaison
 - o Academic Grant Advisor
 - o Workshop Facilitator and Fundraising Coordinator
- Charles McNair Booker T. Washington Student Development Foundation Board of Directors, 2011–2025 (President, 2019–2025)

He also leaves honorary sons Philip Hannah and Lou Dawkins.

Marshall was preceded in death by his parents, Pearlle and Cora Nell Blackburn Thomas; siblings Ruth Thomas Cheatham, Horace Thomas Sr., Theresa Thomas Bell, Robert Thomas, and Julia Thomas Pringle; grandson Ali Rogers Jr.; nephews Horace Thomas Jr. and Noland Woods; and niece Lacreasha Bell.

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 29, 2025 at Victorious Believers Ministries C.O.G.I.C., 624 South Outer Drive, Saginaw, Michigan 48601. Supt. Christopher V. “With a heavy heart filled with love, respect, and admiration, I reflect on the life and legacy of my Uncle Marshall. He was the engaging, inspiring, teaching, and motivating uncle—the one who made learning feel like an adventure. He and my father always reminded us that knowledge is key.

In the “Bell” household, the girls weren’t allowed to attend public school, so the only way I could ever be a Trojan was by attending Coach T’s Algebra Summer School class. I loved being there, even though I didn’t receive credit; I simply wanted to be with my Uncle Marshall. I treasured every moment—learning from him, laughing with him, and listening to him sing Christmas songs in the summertime. Those memories will stay with me forever.

Not only did he teach and influence me, but my children had the honor of experiencing his impact as well, witnessing the respect and admiration their peers at Saginaw High School had for him. His disciplinary strategies may have softened a bit when it came to his great-nieces and great-nephews, but his wisdom, for example, and love never wavered.

It was truly a blessing and an honor to be his niece. I am profoundly grateful that I grew up with such a great man of God—a role model, teacher, leader, coach, and disciplinarian all in one.

May you rest in peace, Uncle Marshall... Coach T... until we meet again.

“ This is a very hard one. “Coach T.” is such an incredible human being. My father, Charlie Coles, passed on Friday, June 7, of 2013. My sister called me around 11am to let me know. I had just pulled off the exit for work after a two hour drive from my house in Bay City. After speaking with my sister, I informed my employer that my dad passed, and headed back home on the longest drive of my life. I drove in silence for a while not knowing whether to call my wife (at the time) or how I should tell my kids their Papa was gone. The first call I made was to Marshall Thomas. Coach T loved to play golf, so of course, he was on the golf course taking people’s money. I told him about my father passing. He knew when he saw I was calling what I was about to tell him. For as long as I was alive my father and Coach T were friends. He loved my father. But he also knew, without me telling him, that I needed advice on how to tell my kids. He told me to tell my kids in person. Don’t have anyone else tell them. I needed to tell them. To this day, I have no idea how he even knew how long I had known my father passed or where I even was. But he did. He spoke at my father’s funeral and we knew when we asked that he would do it. I lived with the Thomas family most of my senior year. I was treated like a big brother to the girls, and like a son by Coach T and Mrs. Thomas. I will post as many memories as I can, most of which my dad shared with me about Coach T and Saginaw High. I am so sorry and want the Thomas family and friends to know that the Coles’ family loves Coach T forever.
GOD Bless.

“ I used to see coach T in the hallways of shs he always had kind words for any student he came across but as an educator he did not play. After graduation i'd see him at bringer inn all the time coach T will be greatly missed by everyone who's life he touched. Rest easy Coach you've made it to the biggest game ever suit up and enjoy yourself sir god's got you on his team he's always had your back.

My thoughts of caring and condolences go to the many family members and friends of Marshall Thomas, Coach T. I first started teaching at SHS and I knew of him. When I taught at the rival school it was still wonderful to see the difference he was making on the basketball court. His career grew in a space where kids, especially boys, needed a role model and a guide. He was there. It was his calling and he was a blessing to many. Marshall Thomas was more than a good coach and will be missed by many, young and old, for the difference he made in their lives. RIP 🙏

Such a gentleman! Such class, dignity, grace and compassion. I cannot think of enough adjectives to adequately describe Coach Marshall Thomas!!! He offered so many comforting and reassuring words when I lost my husband, Leonard M. Porterfield. I had no idea that at that very moment he was in a battle, against cancer, for own life. Months later I contacted him and informed him that one of Leonard's former students was making a documentary film about my late husband and that I would like for him to be interviewed and he agreed. Coach Thomas was there and I remember sharing some photos and memorabilia with him as he waited to be interviewed. I am so honored that he took time out of his busy schedule to participate. Last month th I contacted him, through his daughter and informed him that the film had been completed, She informed me that she had put me on speakerphone and that he heard everything I had said, also that he was smiling. My heartfelt thanks to Coach Thomas!!!! Kudos to his daughter for making sure her dad got that message during difficult and trying times. Condolences to the entire Thomas family!!! Thank you for sharing such a gem with the entire Saginaw Community. He has truly earned his wings!!! Georgia D. Manzie-Porterfield

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences for your loss. My deepest sympathies are with you and your family during this difficult time. I had the privilege of meeting Coach Thomas when I was a student athlete in school. He was not just my coach; he was a positive role model and mentor in my life and for many others. Our friendship has endured to this day, and Coach T earned the respect of both students and their families. He will be profoundly missed by many in the Saginaw Public School District and the wider community.

“ Many years ago former SHS Trojans, Bob Markey, Beau Minnich, Norm Bamberger and myself began hosting a golf outing in former teacher and coach, Jim Bromley’s honor. That first outing had about 30 golfers. Soon we recruited one Saginaw’s most distinguished citizens, successful coach and mentor, and most importantly our friend and former classmate, “rock star” Coach “T”. Our outings raised substantial money toward the SHS scholarship fund that Marshall played an important role in. No one was asked more often to join a group picture during our SHS mini reunion than Marshall. By then our SHS outings were hosting over a100 golfers. And when Marshall would be asked “hey Marshall do you remember when”???....Marshall would just nod his head yes, and show off that legendary smile of his....that his friends will miss but always remember.Im Proud like many others Coach “T” to have been a friend of our town’s true icons.
