“ To the family of my dear classmate Mary Blackmon-Johnson, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I recall meeting Mary at Central Middle School and throughout Saginaw High School. At one of our class reunion at the Anderson Enrichment during the meet and greet Mary attended that reunion and she appeared to be having so much fun. Mary loved to dance, I remember our Friday lunch hour dances at Central, Mary was going to be on that dance floor. She will be missed, but her memories will live on. RIP classmate.

“ This is so hard to believe, I thought we had more time together, to watch you dance, laugh and eat your favorite food (greens), i can still here your voice and you calling me Baby, remembering the 1st time we met and the last time we all ate, laugh and talking in my front yard. You will be so missed Ms. Mary. did not want to wake up to this news that you transitioned to be with your other siblings and parents. But God said its was time to take your eternal Rest. As you always end your good bye Love You. RIH Ms. Mary Blackmon.
