“ To the Family of Mary Lue Byrd

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. It is always painful to lose a loved one; I also have lost many dear ones to death.

God's son Jesus promised a resurrection in John 5:28, 29. Imagine enjoying life with Ms. Mary once again, right here on earth, forever. -Psalm 37:11, 29.

May you find comfort, gain hope at this time, and seek the answer to: 'When will sickness, suffering and death end?'. -Revelation 21:4

*Sincerely,
Marlis...*

“ Bertha and Siblings, Whenever someone's mother passes my heart becomes so overwhelmed because mom's are so necessary in every facet of our lives. Please know that as the days, weeks and months go by, I will be praying for your entire family. Continue to find strength in Him during this transition. Love Ya,

“ Things just won't be the same for me, I can no longer sit and visit with Mama Byrd when I come home to visit for she was the neighborhood Mom of many. Praise God she lived pass the given years and now she can rest beside Papa Byrd as she so longed to do. Byrd family I'm truly sorry I can't make it home for Mama Byrd's home going but know that I love you all and you all are forever in my prayers, heart and thoughts.

“ To the Byrd and Wright Family
"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints (Psalm 116:15)." Our deepest sympathy to your family at this time of loss. We were sorry to hear of the passing of your dear mother, Mrs. Mary Byrd. But we know that death is not the end of the story. It is the beginning of life ever-lasting for those who have accepted Jesus as their personal Savior! Though weeping may endure for a night, joy will surely come in the morning! May God give each of you the strength to make it through, as you put your trust in Him. May His the Holy Spirit give you comfort!

Yours in Christ-----Josephine and Keisha Pelt
