“ Dear Lela and Family,

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of "Miss Mary" is what I called her. She was a sweet person. I know we started off as neighbors in the Projects, but I remember the house on 24th street most. I remember her letting me stay at your home all those times when we were young. She was a simple person, not flashy or flamboyant, just the salt of the earth; reliable, kind. I remember her always cooking greens or something from her garden, and like my grandma, liked her "snuff". She was devoted to her husband and family, working hard at home to take care of you all. She wasn't a person of many words, but she was direct and to the point, and she was soft spoken. She always asked about my family whenever she saw me. Recently I had the chance to see her at the nursing home. I hadn't seen her in quite awhile, didn't know if she remembered me, but she did! She told me I still looked the same, I just had gotten a little fat! That was Miss Mary! We had a long, good conversation; we talked about Judy and I told her I remembered "Bit" among other stuff. She had a long blessed life! I will be praying for your family for I know what it is to lose a mother. There will be some days you will smile and laugh, and some days you will miss her and cry. But God gets the glory, because He will be your saving grace, your anchor, your strength if you trust and believe in Him. Friends are good, will be there for you sometimes, but God will be there for you all of the time! Be thankful and hold fast to your memories, and as a family continue to be strong, gather together and celebrate life.

“ Dear Jones Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms 83:18, Psalms 65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians 4:7)
