“ God has called another angel home. Sorry to hear of Mary's passing. I have known the Rance family for many years. I have asked God to put his loving arms around this entire family. The lost of a love one is never easy. But find peace in the fact that her spirit lives forever.

“ My condolences goes out to the Rance family. Mary was the type of person that lit up the room that she entered into with her warm, bright smile. As one of her former classmates, I feel that we have lost a lot. As her family, I know you have lost even more. May God give you the strength to get through these hard times.

“ To the Mary Chris Rance Family,
Many times we don't understand why our loved one has to go through the storms of life. One thing that is certain, is that God never makes mistakes. He is always in control. I say don't try to understand, but look to Jesus Christ to give you peace that passes all understanding. Ask Him to direct your path so that you may also be an instrument of His peace.

It has been a long time since I have seen the Rance family. We all have fond memories of our time at Grace Chapel. We were all family. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Tatianna, grandchildren, Loreann & Calvin, and the rest of the Rance family. Mary Chris's passing was sad for all of us, she will be missed, espically those long phone calls. Mary had a way with people, she never met a stranger, she would brighten everyone's day when she came in contact with you. Mary was the first (Girl of the 80's) to pass away to her heavenly home. May GOD bless you all. Love Bobbie & Berlin & A'Shyarri

“ To the Rance Family

I am so sorry to hear about Mary Chris, and my heart goes out to you in your time of sarrow. When I first heard my first thought was of the days when Rannette and I would be getting ready to go somewhere and by the time we got to the streets out the door would fly little Mary Chris, wanting to follow us. I miss those times, but will never forget them. I will keep all of you in my prayers

*With sincere condolences

“You give strength to the weary and increase the power of the weak. We wait upon the Lord who shall renew our strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.”

Tatianna, know your mom is at peace with the lord. May she now sleep in peace.

Will miss you Mary, but memories of you will never fade. RIP

“Just remembering the good times we had on vacationing to saginaw every summer to see our cousins and vice versa or when we all met at our grandparents house in ozark, alabama. As we got older and went our seperate ways we still managed to stay in touch by phone or by word of mouth. We still had a long distance love for each. May the true living master bless you until we meet again.
