

Mr. Melton Laurice "Milton" Southern

October 10, 1961 - February 15, 2023

Milton "Laurice" Southern was born October 10, 1961 in Florence, Alabama. His mother, Lucy M. Southern loved and cherished him as her baby boy. Milton was led to the Lord by his daughter, Ashley and we know the Lord heard his prayer of repentance and accepted him. Milton passed from death to life February 15, 2023. We will miss him.

Milton attended Saginaw Public Schools, and was blessed with the Gift of music and as an accomplished Bass player. He played in several bands. After an excellent performance, he would kiss his Bass Guitar and say, "I love this thing." Milton loved his wife, children, and family with a fierce love. As his family's youngest sibling, he was loved as such.

Milton "Laurice" leaves to cherish his memory his wife Patricia Southern; his children, Joseph Williams (fiancé, Izasha Gardner), Milton and Michael Butler, Jeremy Robinson (Maria), Ashley Butler, Mario Stanton and Shawn Hairston; siblings, Birler Southern, Andy Southern, Harold Southern (Debra), Pastor Charlene Washington and Maurice Southern (Geraldine); grandchildren, Amari Williams, Anya, Aneya and My-Shea Gardner, ShonTrese, Laurice, DeMarcus, Kaniah, Sa'mya and Maciah Butler; a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Milton was preceded in death by his mother, Lucy M. Southern; son, Stephen

Ware; sisters, Patricia Hardin and DeBora Jones; nephews, Michael Wadley, Don Cope, Jr. Larry Polk, Jr, Otis O. Washington II, Marcus Jones and a niece, Latoya Grant.

Milton leaves his love to all family members and fellow musicians.

“ This was a real shock hearing about my friend Milton; Milton and I go way back to the LAST GENERATION BAND; We kept in touch from time to time via facebook. This guy was the best bass player EVER-PERIOD! Sincere condolences are extended to his wife, brother (who worked at USPS) and entire family. I also worked at Seitner's with his mom years ago, who treated me like a daughter. Great loss!

“ Milton was a favorite to all of us girls at the Secretary of State on Bay rd. He always asked us about our personal lives and made us feel safe and secure when he was in the building. My friendship with Milton continued after we both left our jobs. We just spoke on the phone a few weeks ago and I considered him to be a close friend. I know I will see him again in the Paradise. Rest easy my friend. We will meet again soon!
