“ My brother Mike we first met at 7up Saginaw we hit it right off . You worked in the warehouse and I a bulk driver. You always spoke your mind and drove B Mc donald crazy he would call me in the office and say whats wrong with your boy he's telling me how to run my business. I would just sit there and just laugh inside. The many times we would grill those country style ribs Mike you grilled them the best .laughing when your very much loved grandbaby would come to you with her shoes on the wrong feet. Fishing at Sun Set marina so many great times. I was Blessed the day our paths met and Mike our paths will meet again but on streets of gold and in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior. Sorry I missed your funeral I left the country the day you went to your eternal home my friend. I have so much to say I will save it till we meet again you were a loving Father Grandfather and family man and loved friend Mike you will be greatly missed you left your mark on this world forever.
