“ To The The Family Of The Late Ms Monsee(Regina) Walker;

Mrs Corrine; It is with deep sadness to hear of regina's homegoing. We grew up together & played together as you already know. I Still miss harold so much and now regina's gone to be with him. Tell Gerald to be strong and my prayers are with him. He has to man up and come and face this. Tell astrida I love her & marquettea(oops i might have spelled the name wrong). If there is anything i can do just let me know. My telephone number is listed in the church directory. May God Make his light to shine done upon you and grant you his peace as you prepare to bury you loved one. " You & I both know she is with her Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ where she has a new body & there is no more cancer cause there is no more sickness & death where she is at. I Love you as a brother in Christ & as a friend & neighbor. Things are not going to be the same without monsee here. but I will hold her memory in my heart & use it to accomplish great things for the potter-longstreet neighborhood.

*Keeping you in My constant prayers my wonderful choir member,
Your Christian Brother In christ. Mr Orlando Jones*
