“ WE WILL REMEMBER

TO THE FAMILY OF MOSE MCDANIEL 111

They shall grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

“ To the Family,

If a man die, shall he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) Perhaps you, too, have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

Well, the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29.

Until his promises are fulfilled may the God of all Comfort comfort you.

“ To the entire family of Mose, I am so sorry to learn of this tragic event, my heart goes out to you all. To the parents I know the feeling pains of the death of a child, so my prayers are especially with you. Lean not onto your own understanding but cast your cares upon the Lord and He will carry you in your hour of need.
