“ To Fred Martin and entire Reynolds family:
We the SHS Class of 1975 wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to our friend, classmate and brother - Fred Martin in the transition of your dear mother from labor to reward. We want you to know that we are praying with you and for the family as you endure the days ahead. We pray that you find strength in knowing that God will never leave you nor forsake you. He will be and has been for some of us a mother for the motherless, father for the fatherless and a friend who has stuck closer than a brother. We also want you to know that we are here for you. Look to the hills from which comes all your help, you help comes from the Lord.

Humbly submitted,
Your sisters and brothers
SHS Class of 1975

“ Dear Reynolds family, Please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Mozella. I am writing to share with you the Bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The scriptures tell us at (John 5:28, 29) that soon the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. This promise is held out to all mankind including Mozella. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement. “ Dear Reynolds Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
