“ Terribly sorry to hear of Ms. Kelly’s death. She will be dearly missed. When suffering unceasingly from his trials, Job asked God: “If a man dies, can he live again?” God assured him that he would call and Job would answer. Ms. Kelly is in God’s memory. During the appointed time, God will call and she will live again. Our heartfelt condolences for your loss!

“ My deepest Condolences goes out to the families of Ms. Nell Rose Kelly, Patton . Ms. Kelly lived a long Blessed life of Ninety years , which was highly Favored by her Lord and Savior . I never met Ms. Nell Rose Kelly, but I met her through her son , Mr. Brian Patton “BP” . Brian would often talk about his mother at work stating how much he loved his mother , Brian would visit his Mother every night after work , to check on her wellness and to give her required medications, rain , sleet or snow . Brian would check on his Mother before and after work for some years after driving to and from work at times thirty five minutes to an hour , he still stop in to see his mother to give her required medication, etc. before he went home, this continued after his Mother moved into a care center . This is what a good and Loving and Caring Son is all about . Brian Truly Loved his Mother , without any doubt . When you care for your Mother as Mr. Brian Patton did , over the years their will be no crying and tears for his Mothers Home Going , because God knows that Brian has done good by his Mother over the years a son that many Mothers would love to have . Now the Lord has called her home where there will be no more pain and sickness , Ms. Nell Rose Kelly will be truly be missed by many families and friends.
