“ This is a very difficult time, but know we grieve with you, and we wish we could be there in person to show our heartfelt condolence. And remember to grieve but not like those who have no hope.

From son # 2 and Family.

“ Aunt "D" I/We are sorry for the loss of your beloved husband and our beloved Uncle. I/We are so sorry that we are not there (due to sickness) to comfort you in your time of sorrow and need. We are praying to Jehovah to give you all that you need to get through what you are going through at this time.

Sincerely,

Your 2 Nep's (Charles & NuNu) & Niece (Jearline) The Alexander's.

“He Himself has said,
I will not in any way fail you
nor give you up
nor leave you without support.”
Hebrews 13:5

May your troubled heart
find peace and comfort in the knowledge that you are never alone.
May God's presence ease
your trembling spirit and give you rest.
He knows how you feel.
He is ever aware of your circumstances
and ready to be your strength,
your grace, and your peace.
He is there to cast sunlight
into all of your darkened shadows,
to send encouragement through the love of friends and family, and to replace your weariness with new hope.

God is your stronghold,
and with Him as your guide,
you need never be afraid.
No circumstances can block His love.
No grief is too hard for Him to bear.
No task is too difficult for Him to complete.
When what you are feeling is simply too deep for words
and nothing anyone does or says
can provide you with the relief you need,
God understands.
He is your provider --
today, tomorrow, and always.
And He loves you.

*Cast all of your cares on Him...

With deepest sympathy God will take care of you.
