Legend

Listening to Pops tell a story was like seeing what he was describing for yourself. It was like hearing your favorite song back in the day on the radio and sitting in the car until the music went off. "You just couldn't walk away until the end." It was a treat to hear his insights and wisdom. That resounding baritone voice commanded all ears and eyes like the legend he was. Very few people want to be remembered for the worst things they did. Ultimately, we are all hopeful that our pleas for forgiveness are received to ensure healing can begin. Pops, thank you for letting me into your circle. "Job well done"!

I met him in the 70's where he lived across the street with Jodi and her children, T.T. and D'Sean Mitchell. One thing I can say about Hangdown is that he was a father figure to these children as if they were his own. No disrespect to Mrs. Stanton but this is what I remember and I am so so sorry for your loss! Hangdown will be missed and I cherish these memories of you. “ We extend our deepest condolences to the family of Brother Stanton; We served together on the hospitality committee at Mount Nebo and it was certainly a pleasure working with him. He always kept it real! Extremely sharp dresser and kind heart. He would bring little gifts for Larry Adams and these gifts will be cherished in his memory!

“ Pastor Dr. Willie Hill and the Mount Nebo Baptist Church extends heartfelt condolences to the family of Brother Odell "Hangdown" Stanton; He was a close and personal friend of Dr. Hill for more than 45 years. There are unspeakable and an abundance of memories that will be cherished forever. His church family will miss his words of wisdom he shared when he would welcome guests at Mount Nebo. He was truly gifted with words and gave his all when serving on the hospitality committee at the church. May God's grace be with his entire family and friends who loved him as we celebrate his life on earth with us.

*Love from your church family and one of your closest friends:
Dr. Willie Hill Jr.*
