“ For her children: I understand words, however kind, can't mend your heartache. Those of us, who care and share your loss, wish you comfort and peace of mind. I know there is unexplainable sadness and grief, a longing for one more day, one more word, and one more touch. May happy memories carry you through this time of sorrow. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. Although it may seem hard right now, it will be these precious memories that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. I know we never lose the people we love, even in death. My aunt Ophelia lives with us forever in our hearts. It's hard to understand why the people we love are taken from us, but we must find comfort in God. She is with the lord. Her soul is free. Her pain is gone. She is now at peace in heaven. And she will never be forgotten...

With Love and Prayers
