“ God knew the time and hour... The last time, I spoke with "Big O" we had prayer. To her children, May the God of Jesus bring you the Comforter to assure you that when we are in Christ Jesus, we are saved, safe and secured that God has His heart open to those who receive Him. Aunt "O" is saved, safe and secured.
Forever loved...Min.Gatlin

“ My sincerest condolences To the family of Mrs Ora Stephens, affectionately known as "BIG O." I leave this poem with you:

GOD looked around his garden

and found an empty place.

HE then looked down upon the earth and saw her tired face.

HE put his arms around her and lifted her to rest.

He knew that she was suffering

He knew she was in pain

He knew that she would never Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb

So he closed her weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose her

But she didn't go alone,

For part of us went with her

The day GOD called her home.

My GOD give you strength during this difficult time. REST-IN-HEAVEN, Mrs Ora Stephens !

“ "The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love."
