“ Oh my EnchiladaMamma! Pat you were a good friend to Lon & me. You were always thoughtful, fun, and truly interested in our lives. You will always bring a smile to my face, laughter to my heart, and love to my mind.

Renee I know this will be a hard loss for you. You were given the strength to care for her when she was sick. You enjoyed her when she was well. You stayed with her when she was scared and confused. Soon you will release her, and she will remain forever young, vibrant, pain free, and happy. She will enjoy her favorite things and you will remember her this way.

Your mother must have the biggest smile on her face knowing how much you truly loved her. How much you remember all of her favorite things, and how much you miss her. She is so proud of you, the past, present, and future you have because of what she gave you.

Our thoughts are with you, your brother, her grandbabies (even though they're not babies), and all of her family, blood and adopted.
